

Flute Society of Greater Philadelphia

Group Membership Application 2007-08 Season

The Flute Society of Greater Philadelphia is pleased to announce a new membership offering this upcoming season for flute groups such as private teachers with flute studios or flute choirs, and community, high school or college flute choirs/groups.

Group Membership includes the same benefits as individual memberships, such as:

- Free admission to all concerts, masterclasses, and events
- Opportunity to perform in member recitals
- Newsletters featuring articles on area flutists and notice of greater Philadelphia area flute-related performances
- Participation in adult flute choirs

The group rate will be $75 for the 2007-08 season for organizations with up to 30 members. The coordinator of the group may choose to collect a fee from each group member to cover the cost, but one check must be sent from the group. The coordinator will need to supply contact information for all group members so that The Flute Society may keep all members informed of club happenings.

Please complete the following information and return with payment to:
