Beatboxing Flutist Greg Pattillo comes to Philadelphia!

Mark your calendars and be sure to join the Flute Society at the Ethical Society of Philadelphia on Saturday February 11th as we present Greg Pattillo and Project Trio in concert at 2 PM.

Prior to the concert program at 12:00, Project Trio will conduct a workshop for students of all ages and abilities in beatboxing, improvisation and jazz techniques. Be sure to bring your flutes!

More details and ticket order form can be found on the next few pages of the newsletter and on the FSGP website. Hope to see you there!

Holiday Caroling Brings Joy to Nursing Home Residents

On Sunday, December 11th, members of the Flute Society along with 20 students from Rena Block's Evesham Flute Studio presented a concert of holiday classics and traditional carols to the residents of the Wiley Christian Home in Marlton, NJ.

A special thanks goes out to Marian Concus, Eunice Li, Mark McKeever, Joan Sparks and her student Miranda for giving of their time and talents and spreading holiday cheer to these deserving seniors!

From FSGP member Marc Adler:

I am pleased to announce that ScoreVivo is offering my book Jazz Duets for the Flute. ScoreVivo is the unique publishing company of Ann Cameron Pearce, Artistic Director and her son Jason Pearce, Founder and Web Developer. Ann is an acclaimed flutist/composer and co-founder of Raleigh Area Flute Association & Raleigh Flute Choir. ScoreVivo provides its customers with high-quality PDF versions of sheet music that print clearly or may be loaded on an iPad or tablet. They have a wide variety of artists and categories of music (Brass, Flute, String, etc.) in addition to their impressive collection of flute music (C Flute, Alto, Bass, Contrabass, Eb Flute with works for solo flute, duets, flute choir, etc.). Please take a moment to check out their site and my duet book (a nice diversion from the standard repertoire, and can be adapted for use with a jazz rhythm section). Thank you!
